

Awarded
Highest Honors—World's Fair.
• DR. •
PRICE'S CREAM
BAKING POWDER
MOST PERFECT MADE.
Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant.
40 Years the Standard.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14, 1897.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Next Sunday will be Easter.
New wall paper at T. F. Sawyer's.
Pure crab cider at Riedel & Co's.
New line of wall paper at Babbage's.
Thos. Bohler went to Louisville Sunday.
Three nice rooms to rent apply at this office.
James Hambleton went to Holt yesterday.
Lace curtains, 25 cents a pair—Home Laundry.
All periodicals for April, have arrived—Babbage's.
Good wall paper 24 cents single roll—T. F. Sawyer.
Something new in candy at C. H. Riedel & Co's.
C. L. Hawkins, of Hardinsburg, was in the city Saturday.
Wallace's famous show will be at Owensboro May 1.
Paul's writing fluid the greatest ink of the age—Babbage's.
G. W. Short is hauling the brick for his new store-house.
J. P. Ditzbach and son, Louis, went to Louisville Sunday.
Closing out our stock of furnishing goods. See us—Babbage's.
Vocal and instrumental sheet music for ten cents at Babbage's.
R. E. Woods, of Louisville, was in the city Saturday on business.
Most any girl in this town would rather ride a wheel than cook.
A country store in this county sold last year $9,000 worth of eggs.
Alex Boyd and daughter, Miss Katie, went to Louisville yesterday.
Miss Ethel Oelze entertained the young ladies club yesterday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Orville Gregory, of Victoria, spent Sunday in the city.
Home Laundry will laundry your shirt waists for 10 cents—send them in.
Rev. W. C. Overstreet was in the city Monday en route to the Presbytery.
Preaching at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.
Frank Mercer, of Hardinsburg, came down Sunday en route to Hawesville.
The Columbia Circle, B. V. R. C. met at Mrs. W. B. Rutledge's Monday night.
Tom Moorman, of Glendene, was in town Saturday trying to sell his tobacco.
Harry Moorman came up from Owensboro Sunday afternoon, returning that night.
Where were the passengers on Sunday morning's east-bound train from the shops?
Rev. Donald M. Grant left last night for Owensboro to attend a meeting of the Presbytery.
W. S. Beard, of Hardinsburg, with A. E. Ziehme jewelry firm, of Chicago, was here Monday.
Mrs. Jasper Dyer went to Hardinsburg yesterday to visit her brother and little niece—just arrived.
Chas. May, Sr., and son, Charles, Jr., went to Louisville Sunday to spend the day with his son, Walter.
George Jamison, of Stephensport, the "King" of the men, was in the city Monday. He wants 1,000,000 ties.
Charlie Babbage has his egg plant in full operation. It grinds out chickens at the rate of 240 in three weeks.
Orville Skillman is over at San Francisco this week enjoying the sights of that great city with Charlie Sawyer.
Mrs. Wash Holt, of Holt, and daughter, Mrs. Gus Luckett, of Owensboro, were in the city Saturday shopping.
Lost—a silver lock bracelet with monogram on locket, F. L. S. Restore to Mrs. Dr. Smith and receive reward.
Jesse W. Owen with Pease, Gault & Co., spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Owen.
Do you want a permanent position with good pay? If so, write to The Hawks Nursery Co., Rochester, N. Y.
Mrs. Marion Hambleton, assisted by Miss Maria Watkins will entertain the Woman's Reading Club Thursday afternoon.
The Organ Society fund of the Baptist church which gave a dinner Saturday in Babbage's Hall, met with extra good success.
Mrs. Joe Smart was no better yesterday. Dr. Simons has been at her bedside for a week and Dr. Watkins makes daily visits.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. W. Frank, of Irvington, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lucy to Mr. David Heron, of this city, May 6.
Miss LaFayette LaFayette, after a prolonged visit with relatives and friends at Henderson, Evansville and Paducah, will arrive home to-day.
Misses Mayme Cooby and Eva Young, who have been the guests of their sister, Mrs. C. B. Skillman, returned to Morgantown, their home, Monday.

Easter hats.—Miller & Lightfoot.
All great men rise from small beginnings.
Get your Easter straw hat from Friz's.
The very latest in straw hats at Friz's.
Easter egg dyer—easy to handle—Sulzer's.
See our Easter display of neckwear.—Sulzer's.
Shoes—have you seen our display.—Sulzer's.
Fra z's spring line of straw hats are in—See them.
How about a nice dress skirt for Easter.—Sulzer's.
Come and see our line of straw matting.—Sulzer's.
Hair Brushes, clothes brushes, combs, etc. at Babbage's.
Southern vegetables for easter dinners Sunday.—Sulzer's.
Don't miss it—come and see our Easter display.—Sulzer's.
Two rooms and a kitchen for rent, apply to Wm. Kingsbury.
The most fastidious person can be suited at Miller & Lightfoot's.
Have you purchased your Easter hat? If not, see Miller & Lightfoot.
Born, April 13 to the wife of Frank Beavin, a fine bouncing boy.
The Cloverport chickens cleaned up every thing at Derby last Tuesday.
Has it ever occurred to you? Why a stick of candy is like a race horse.
The Cloverport Royal Arch Chapter No. 99, will meet next Friday night.
Selling times have come. What is more beautiful than a well kept yard.
Our grocery department the place to find good eatings for Easter.—Sulzer's.
Send in your order for Easter eggs either colored or uncolored.—Sulzer's.
The weather so far in this month, has been more penetrating than in last month.
At Addison & Dick's, Addison, Red and white kidney beans at $1.20 per bushel.
Charlie Moorman has resumed his position at the shops as assistant bookkeeper.
Ladies call this week and see our display of dress goods for early spring wear.—Sulzer's.
Mrs. Lou's Adams and baby, formerly of this city, are very sick at their home in Louisville.
Prices that will leave lots of money in your purse, when you buy millinery of Miller & Lightfoot.
Our purchase this spring, is enormous, we are offering some great bargains. A mistake of your life will be made when you fail to visit us.—Miller & Lightfoot.
"The nearest I ever came to be married," said the old bachelor, was when a shopkeeper gave me a bad 50 cent piece and I went back and tried to get a better half.
J. P. Ditzbach, who has been foreman of the News office for ten or twelve years, has resigned on account of failing health. Mr. W. H. Hinds, of Henderson, succeeds him.
Miss Lela Henly's time as post-master expired last Monday, April 12. The Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal says Capt. J. H. Rowland will succeed her.
Bishop T. U. Dudley of the Episcopal church assisted by the Rev. M. M. Benton will hold confirmation services in the Methodist church on Thursday evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock.
Will never get it. What? Why, the newness here, of course, we won't let it. This store is like a fire engine, whose engineer delights in keeping it bright.—Miller & Lightfoot.
James Jackson, candidate for County Court Clerk, of Hancock county, was here Saturday looking after votes. Jim has many friends here and it is to be hoped he will be successful.
A most enjoyable time was had by all present at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Skillman Friday evening, the occasion being a Euchre party given in honor of her sisters, Misses Mayme Cooby and Eva Young.
This season we have left nothing undone to suit our customers. We have an immense line of all kinds of millinery and at prices within reach of all. Come and let us show you some of the nobbiest things for spring wear.—Miller & Lightfoot.
Mrs. L. G. Gregory, widow of the late Judge L. G. Gregory, has received from the A. O. U. W. lodge a check for $2,000. The deceased had been a consistent member of the lodge every since its first organization in this city.
Elder Ernest Elliott, of the Christian church, will begin a series of meetings here Monday, April 26, in Newsom's store room. Dr. Newsom has kindly donated the use of his room for the meeting as the members here have no house of their own.
The Hawesville Clarion says: Dick Beavin, this city, has leased a lot on the Soyce corner and will erect a house at once for the purpose of starting a saloon in it. Mr. Beavin is a good business man and will get into his new place sometime in May.
Editor Sterett, of the Hancock Clarion, never lets anything escape in the way of news. A shooting affray occurred after the issue of his paper, Friday evening. Still the "Clarion" came out with a bright little supplement giving full details of the whole affair, with other news.
Chas. Riedel, of Holt, was in the city Monday. Mr. Riedel put an ad in the News advertising some mules and horses for sale. He said to a representative of the News that he had received numerous letters enabling him to dispose of them at fair prices. He further said, if any one has anything they wish to sell advertise in the News and they'll get immediate returns.

Dr. S. B. Adkinson has secured the contract to carry the mail from the post-office to the depot.
Eggs for setting from Plymouth rock, Cornish Indian Game and White Leghorns.—G. W. Short.
Rev. S. G. Shelly is beginning the annual subscription for missionary and conference collections.
The prayer meeting will be in the interest of missions at the Baptist church to-night. Everybody come.
Rev. S. K. K. Breeding and daughter, Misses Mittie and Julia, Hardinsburg, were guests of Rev. S. G. Shelly, Monday.
Miss Annie Beemer, of Moxleyville, certainly has courage. She wants an appointment to carry the mail on one of the star routes in this state.
M. V. Marlow, buyer for the Cincinnati Cooperage Co., has purchased in the last week for the company enough timber to make over 800,000 staves.
C. C. Moorman, of St. John's, Ky., spent several days last week with his little daughter, Pauline, who is staying with her grand-mother, Mrs. J. E. Keith.
M. V. Marlow, buyer for the Cincinnati Cooperage Co., but who is the owner of a good farm near Patesville, had four sheep killed by dogs Saturday night.
Miss Jennie Calloway went to Louisville Monday to purchase her spring stock of millinery. She will show the people of this city something nobby in that line.
Next Sunday will be Missionary Day in the Methodist Sunday School. Will parents and members of the congregation help the school to raise a good collection?
No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents.
Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists.
Resolutions of Respect.
WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in his wise Providence to remove from our midst our comrad, Isaac Whitehouse. He was a private in company K, 48th Kentucky Mounted Infantry and a charter member of Murray Post No. 19, G. A. R., and a regular attendant at its meetings till sickness prevented. Be it Resolved, That in the death of Conrad Whitehouse the Post has lost a deserving member, his community a good citizen, the family a loving father and husband.
Resolved, That a record be spread on the books of this Post and our heartfelt sympathy extended to the family.
BREWLEYVILLE.
The rains continue to descend.
Mrs. M. P. Payne is on the sick list.
Farmers are very much behind with spring work.
Hon. Chas. Blanford visited his home, Saturday and Sunday.
G. E. Drury spent the week in Louisville, buying spring goods.
Misses Blanche Jolly and Lena Drury visited friends, in Irvington, Saturday.
A man named Scott, employed by Z. T. Smith, as farm-hand, is quite sick at Mr. Smith's.
The rains are good for pastures, so we feel that our clover-growing quandary somewhat solid.
Moorman Hardaway is diligently preparing for an examination for Civil Service. Success to him.
Mr. Beavin thinks if Charlie Drury will muzzle his sheep, the clover field will come up to his expectations.
Taylor Beard, of Hardinsburg, made the rounds of our community, last week, selling a History of the United States.
The news of the illness of our pastor, Bro. Walton, reached us Sunday. We regret to hear of it very much and hope that he has recovered ere this.
B. F. Russell, who taught singing classes in our town and other places, near by, several years ago, will sing at Brewleyville, Saturday, April 24, 7 o'clock p. m.
A big freeze, Friday night, April 9th., makes us all feel uneasy about the fruit. There is an abundant bloom, but a few more such freezes would make "everything rare."
The young people are preparing for an Easter service at 7 o'clock p. m. Easter Sunday. It is well to cultivate the mind and heart and such exercises are beneficial to both.
I would be one of those to cry out against the liquor traffic. I believe we are on rising ground, but a long way from what we ought to be. If all who claim to be christians would only work together in this matter, the fight would be easier.
GOLDEN ROD.
EKRON.
Floyd Lampkin, of Guston, was in town, Friday.
Jake Kendall moved on a farm, near Webster, last week.
Ike Owings and family spent, Sunday, with S. J. Brown and wife.
Dr. S. S. Watkins, of Cloverport, was the guest, one day, last week, of Z. T. Cox.
Mrs. Belle Ashcraft and children spent Monday with her niece, Mrs. Eula Haycroft.
Messrs. Cunningham, Trigg and Henry represented the traveling fraternity, here, last week.
Mrs. Henry Brown and children, of near Guston, spent Sunday, with Sing Brown and wife.
Mrs. Simmons, of Louisville, came down Sunday, to visit her parents, Tom Roberts and wife.
Jake Shacklett and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Ben Shacklett and wife.
S. J. Brown, Jim Jones, Emmett Daugherty and Jim Warfield were in Brandenburg, last week, on business.
Mrs. Tom Roberts went to Elizabethtown, last Friday, to see her daughter, Mrs. Cofer, who has throat trouble.
Mrs. J. H. Bishop, Mrs. Kate Norton, Mrs. J. L. Bishop, Boot Starks and family were guests, Monday, of Mrs. Mollie Brown.
Oh, those dull, rainy times, it is a hard matter to gather news, consequently our better looks as if it had been nipped by the frost.
Katie B. H. and Willie Rose outstayed their friends, Saturday night, with a dance. Quite a crowd was present and reported a jolly time.
Dr. Warfield received a letter, last week, from Louisville, announcing the death of his brother, George. The cause of his death was apoplexy and died in twenty minutes.
The constant wail of the house-wife is heard in Ekron from morn till night, she can't put in her garden or do her spring cleaning on account of the continued cool weather and rain.
The Mormon preachers left, last Monday, for Cold Spring, in the lower part of the county. They were here only a few days, but caused more contention than the late political contest.
Mrs. S. J. Brown returned, Saturday night, from the city. The spring hats are perfect dreams, and when the belles start out, Easter Sunday, with their new hats, their beaux will think they have a flower garden, in full bloom, on their heads.
Sunday's Courier-Journal contained a cut of "Denmark, Jr.," the famous saddle horse purchased by Pres. McKinley. The cut represents him to be a fine specimen of horse flesh, such as Old Kentucky is capable of turning out, and fit for a President or King to mount.
GUSTON.
Dr. and Mrs. Baxter spent Sunday at Irvington.
Chas. Drury and wife were the guests of Miss Eva Carrigan Sunday.
Why can't we have a fish fry soon? We wish our boys had a little more energy.
Mrs. Pollock and her daughter, Miss Helen, visited relatives near Rhedelia last week.
We had a very enjoyable graphophone entertainment at the school-house, Monday evening.
Misses Elorine Anderson and Lulu Bland, of Brandenburg, spent Saturday and Sunday at J. G. Anderson's.
Chas. Redman, Irvington, attended church here Sunday. Mr. Redman is thinking of tilling the soil, we hear.
Rev. G. C. Overstreet preached here Sunday morning and night. He seemed heartily glad to see old faces again.
The county Sunday School committee met at the residence of R. J. Patterson, Apr. 3d, for the purpose of making out a program for the convention to be held at Sandy Hill, May 23d. The subjects selected will, no doubt, be very beneficial to the cause.
STEPHENSPOET.
Stephensport is on a boom.
Miss Etta English is quite ill at this writing.
Mrs. M. Blaine left Saturday for Cincinnati.
C. H. Watlington is on the sick list this week.
The Misses Moseley have a fine new upright piano.
County Clerk Cunningham was in town last week.
Mrs. Tom Squires, Sample, was in town shopping Saturday.
Miss Rhea Washington, of Irvington, has a music class here.
Brumfield Bros. left Sunday for Tell City with a fine raft of 380 logs.
Business is looking up. The merchants are all smiles and hustle.
Mrs. L. H. Miller is in Henderson with her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Ferry.
Dr. Vaughn, Louisville, is visiting his son, R. W. Vaughn this week.
We are glad to report Mrs. R. W. Vaughn improving at this writing.
Dr. S. L. Helm, Lexington, Ky., is a guest of his sister, Mrs. L. B. Helm.
Miss Ida Crawford is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. T. Roberts, of Robert's Bottom, this week.
Mrs. M. Blaine and Mrs. C. H. Watlington will engage in the millinery business at this place.
Payne Bros. have greatly improved the appearance of their store-house by giving it a new coat of paint.
There is less loading on our streets at present than any time for the past two years. Who will say now that the Republican administration is not a good one?

Tutt's Pills
Cure All
Liver Ills.
Prevention
better than cure. Tutt's Liver Pills will not only cure, but if taken in time will prevent Sick Headache,
dyspepsia, biliousness, malaria, constipation, jaundice, torpid liver and kindred diseases.
TUTT'S Liver PILLS
ABSOLUTELY CURE.
Walker Board and son, Norris went to Louisville Saturday, returning Sunday night.
Knox Hardin, of Hardin's Mill, spent a few days last week with relatives at this place.
Jesse E. Weatherholt, of Hancock county, was the guest of Miss Zila Furrow Sunday.
County Treasurer, L. L. Mitchell and assistant, Mr. —, of Cannelton, Perry county, Ind., were in the Bottom Sunday.
It seems like the low prices now paid for tobacco have no effect on the farmer for a larger crop than usual will be in this section the present season.
Col. J. D. Powers, Owensboro, was here on business last Monday. He has lately sold his farm at this place to a Mr. Osborne, of Owensboro, who will move on it in a few days.
There is a movement on foot to divide the Bottom into two school districts with the upper school-house at Addisor. There is also some talk of a church being built at that place soon.
Mr. and Mrs. Philo DeHaven have moved to housekeeping in Owensboro and will move to this place as soon as his time expires in the revenue service. Mrs. DeHaven is staying with her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Gross for the present.
Jas. P. Minor sold his farm last week to County Treasurer Mitchell, of Cannelton, Perry county, Ind., for $6,650, and Mr. Minor throws in his interest in the wheat crop, some thirty or forty head of hogs, farming implements, &c. Mr. Seaton, who had rented the farm for two years of Mr. Minor will take charge of it for Mr. Mitchell on about the same terms. Mr. Mitchell's business as being such that he cannot take charge for some time.
To Cure Constipation Forever.
Take Cascarella Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.
The Bradley block on Ontario street, Cleveland, was destroyed by fire at an early hour in the morning. The tenants were rescued with difficulty by the police who broke in the doors at the risk of suffocation and got the people out. The damage is as follows: Bradley estate, $25,000; tenants, $1,000; S. & J. Jacobs, pawn-brokers, $7,000; Rochester shoe company, $10,000; Household Furniture company, $1,500.
BRECKENRIDGE CIRCUIT COURT.
James Ater's Administrator, Plaintiff vs.
James Ater's heirs and creditors, Defendants.
All persons having claims against the estate of James Ater, deceased, are hereby notified to produce their claims before the undersigned commissioner at his office in Hardinsburg, Ky., properly proven on or before the first day of May 1897. Given under my hand as Commissioner of said court this 30th day of March 1897.
V. G. HABBAGE, Com.
The royally bred Jack
IRON CROWN.
Will serve a limited number of mares during the season of 1897 at my stable near Addisor at $5 to insure foal, the money down when the fact is ascertained or the mare parted with. Iron Crown is black with white points nearly 16 hands high, three years old, fast a mile weight 1600 pounds.
J. G. STEPHENS.
P. S. Also a young Jack to let out free of charge.

SUITINGS
FOR MEN and BOYS
LATEST FASHIONS
$4 and upward in Brown, Blue and Black.
English Worsted Suitings all new, nice fitting.
Suits for Boys from $1.00 to $3.00.
Knee Pants from 25 cts to $1.50.
Special Drives on Jean Pants from 60 cts to $1.00.
To appreciate our immense stock of Spring Pants, you must see them.
W. E. BROWN,
Leading Shoe Dealer
IRVINGTON, KY.

OUR EASTER GREETINGS

THIS YEAR ARE ACCOMPANIED BY
SHOWERS OF NEW NOVELTIES
FRESH FROM THE LOOMS.

IT IS A PLEASURE TO SEE THE LADIES

Muss among the New Dress Stuff—Its their privilege to tumble them about and we enjoy seeing them do it. We invite every lady to come in and do the same. Dainty Gems of the Loom exceeding all previous selections. The prices on them will make them go fast. Come and see.

NEXT SUNDAY

You will want to come out in a new spring suit—see our line. Then how about a new neck tie or a new hat, either in wool or straw? Light, easy-feeling SHOES in Tan, Chocolate or Blacks at prices that will make you want a pair. In all our departments you will find us ready for Spring wear. If you are looking for Easter Novelties, come to us.

SULZER'S.
CHILDREN, SEE OUR EASTER WINDOWS.

EASTER GREETINGS

little and adds greatly to the beauty of your home.

CARPETS.

Ingrain all-wool Filling for	35c
An all-wool Ingrain, worth 65c yard for	50c
Large Wilton Rug, worth $2.25 for	$2.00
7-foot Shades, complete, worth 35c for	28c
Matting from 10c to 40c.
Oil Cloths 20c yard.

If you want your Carpets down for Easter you must get them at once as we are very busy. First come first served.

W. H. BOWMER & SON.

IF WE CAN'T GET THE BEST,
We want none. That's one principle in buying. We order only choicest of the best and SELL WITH A GUARANTEE.
Compare our prices with any. We've everything you could wish in Groceries, Luxuries, Delicacies
AND EDIBLES.
GREGORY & GIBSON,
CLOVERPORT, KY.

Novelties In Millinery.

YOU are especially invited to visit our Store next week and see the Beautiful line of spring that will be on display. New Hats, Bonnets, Toques, etc. Our line will be entirely New. Prices very Low.
MILLINERY

Misses Calloway.

WOOL. WOOL. WOOL.
SHIP YOUR WOOL TO
M. SABEL & SONS,
233 and 235 East Market Street, . . . LOUISVILLE, KY.
Established in 1876. We are the largest dealers of Wool in the Southwest, and shipping will require the highest value for their wool from us. We handle all wool for our own account. You have no commission to pay for selling. Write to us. We also furnish socks to parties who will ship to us.